OUR UNIFORM

Our community, past and present take pride in our image and reputation. Our reputation is one of cleverness and creativity with an aspiration to be world class in every endeavour. Our uniform and presentation sends a very important message about our standards, values and our sense of belonging and alignment.

Formal Uniform

- Students must wear their full formal uniform:
 - On Assembly day
 - To school events, special assemblies or highlighted days of significance
 - To excursions offsite unless otherwise advised by the excursion organiser
- The QACI blazer must be worn to and from school during Term 2 & 3 (cooler months).
- The formal uniform may also be worn on normal school days.

Day Uniform

- Our day uniform presents a smart, practical outfit which is aligned with our creative, innovative image and suitable for our climate and indoor learning environment
- The day uniform can be worn any day of the week except those specified for the formal uniform.

Active Uniform

- The active uniform is required for representative sports team activities. It is available to be worn for enrichment activities. It should only be worn for the duration of the event or activity for which it is required. The active wear uniform includes:
 - The school active wear shirt
 - Navy blue Canterbury rucker shorts.

QACI Camp T-shirt

Navy blue t-shirt with QACI logos: this t-shirt is needed for Year 10 camp and may be worn for dance classes and other school activities as advised.

Theatre and Dance Uniform Protocols

- Theatre and Dance blacks only to be worn on days where the student has timetabled classes or is participating in a performance.
- Students are required to wear the QACI formal or day uniform to and from school.
